
Happy 12th Birthday Jasmine!

Every year we watch you grow into an even more amazing person and this year has been one of the most special yet. It's hard to believe you're already in 6th grade because it feels like just yesterday you were learning your first words. Now you're playing the saxophone and practicing karate with focus and confidence and we couldn't be prouder of the young lady you're becoming.

You have a determination and a gentle strength that shine in everything you do. Whether you're learning new moves in karate or playing music that fills the house with warmth you put your whole heart into it. We love seeing you try new things and work hard for what you care about. It shows how bright your future truly is.

You are kind funny thoughtful and full of so much love. You make us smile every single day and being your parents has been one of the greatest blessings of our lives. No matter how tall you grow or how old you become you will always be our little girl and we will always be here cheering you on and loving you more than you'll ever know.

We hope your 12th birthday is filled with happiness fun and everything that makes you feel special because you deserve the very best.

Happy Birthday sweetheart. We love you endlessly.

With all our love,

Mom (Remy) and Dad (Jay)
