WEST LINCOLN, N.C. — The West Lincoln Rebels boys soccer team made history Monday night, November 2, with a dominant 9-0 victory over West Davidson, earning the program's first-ever playoff win and first home playoff victory.

The Rebels put together an impressive offensive performance, led by senior Edwin Ramirez, who finished with two goals and three assists.

Stiven Sanchez added two goals, while Byron Blas contributed two goals and an assist. Sophomore Jahmir Robinson recorded a goal and an assist, and freshman Caleb Ayala also found the back of the net. Junior Jose Duran added a goal and an assist, while Eli Deyton contributed an assist.

Goalkeeper Chase Driscoll helped preserve the shutout, recording two saves on two shots on goal as West Lincoln blanked West Davidson, 9-0.

With the historic win, the Rebels advance to the second round of the NCHSAA playoffs. West Lincoln will travel to Trinity High School on Thursday, November 5, for its next postseason matchup.

While the performance on the field was impressive, the support from the school and community made the night even more special. An enthusiastic crowd turned out to cheer on the Rebels and celebrate a milestone moment for the program.

The players made history on the field, but the community showed just how much these Rebels mean to West Lincoln.
