

A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from LincolnHerald.com

Jay Dellinger, Publisher

As we approach the end of another year, we at LincolnHerald.com would like to take a moment to express our heartfelt gratitude to all of you, our loyal readers and supporters. This holiday season gives us the perfect opportunity to reflect on the blessings we've received and the incredible journey we've shared with you.

This year has been one of growth and transformation for LincolnHerald.com. With your support, we've been able to bring you the news that matters most, covering stories that inform, inspire and connect our community. Your engagement, feedback and trust have been the driving force behind everything we do. We're humbled and honored that you allow us to be a part of your daily lives and we don't take that privilege for granted.

We also recognize that some of our recent changes, such as implementing a login system, have required an extra step on your part. We want to thank you for your patience and understanding as we made these adjustments. These changes are part of our ongoing commitment to enhancing your experience and ensuring that our platform remains secure and reliable. Protecting your information and providing a safe space for you to access news and share your thoughts is a responsibility we take very seriously.

As we celebrate the holiday season, we're reminded of the timeless story of Christmas. It's a story of hope, love, and renewal—values that resonate deeply with us and guide our mission. Just as the birth of Christ brought light into the world, we strive to bring light to our community through honest journalism and meaningful connections.

Looking ahead, we're excited for what's to come in 2025. We're committed to continuing our growth, improving our services and staying true to our core mission: to serve as a trusted source of news and a voice for our community. Your continued support makes this possible and for that, we are endlessly grateful.

From all of us at LincolnHerald.com, we wish you and your loved ones a Merry Christmas filled with joy, peace, and warmth. May the new year bring you health, happiness and countless blessings. Thank you for allowing us to be a part of your story. Here's to another wonderful year together!

With heartfelt appreciation and warmest wishes,
The LincolnHerald.com Team
