

Veterans Coffee Connection Meets Nov. 12

Carolina Caring

LINCOLNTON, N.C. - Veterans Coffee Connection is a great place for veterans to meet, share stories and socialize with other veterans in our area. Veterans of all ages and military branches are welcome to meet on the second Tuesday of every month at Bar-B-Q King in Lincolnton from 8:30 – 9:30 a.m. for free coffee and donuts.

Carolina Caring is proud to be a Level IV partner of the We Honor Veterans program, an awareness program spearheaded by the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization and the Department of Veteran Affairs.

Carolina Caring is eternally grateful to our veterans for their service and remains committed to honor all veterans in our country and in our care.

For more information, please contact Cindy L. Stamey, Director of Community & Veteran Relations at Carolina Caring, 828-466-0466, ext. 2075 or email cstamey@CarolinaCaring.org.

Lincoln County Veteran Services is located at 302 North Academy Street, Lincolnton, NC 28092.

Bar-B-Q King is located at 2613 E Main St, Lincolnton, NC 28092.